ANTI-RAGGING MECHANISM

Introduction:

Ragging is defined as an act that violates or is perceived to violate on individual student's dignity. Ragging involves abuse, humiliation or harassment of new entrants or junior students by the senior students. It often takes a malignant form wherein the newcomers may be subjected to psychological or physical torture.

What Constitutes Ragging

According to the Honourable Supreme Court of India, ragging means: "Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student, or asking the students to do any actor perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student."

Specifically, ragging constitutes any one or more of the following acts (the list is only illustrative):

(a) Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating, or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student.

(b) Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or are likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological or physical harm or to raise the fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or any other student.

(c) Asking the students to do or perform any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do, and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student.

(d) Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or fresher.

(e) Exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.

(f) Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by other students.

(g) Any act of physical abuse including all of its variants, viz., sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, and forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person.

(h) Any act or abuse by spoken words, e-mails, posts, or public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill, or showing off power, authority or superiority, or passively participating in the discomfiture to any fresher or any other student.

(i) Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority over any fresher.

Effects of Ragging:

The victims of ragging suffer maximum in the forms of depression, isolation, demoralization & many other forms of detrimental effects on the personality. In extreme cases, the victim can even commit suicide due to mental pressures that develop over a period of time.

Prohibition of Ragging

- Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited
- (a) within the College Campus including the Departments, Classrooms, etc.,
- (b) in Hostels, Campus etc., and
- (c) in Playgrounds, Transport Vehicles, etc.

Government steps against ragging:

It was in the late 70s in the aftermath of the death of two fresher in a Regional Engineering college that the Government of India for the first time issued a notification barring ragging in the country. The anti-ragging Campaign got an impetus in 1999 when the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in response to PIL filed by the Vishwa Jagriti Mission asked the University Grants Commission to issue guidelines to universities to curb ragging. In 2006, the issue of ragging was once again brought to the forefront when the Supreme Court expressed its disappointment in the implementation of its previous guidelines & constituted another committee to suggest means & methods to prevent ragging. The committee made some strong recommendations to curb ragging. In order to address the issue of an increase in ragging cases on campuses, the UGC has brought out the UGC regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions 2009. These regulations are to be followed mandatorily by all Higher Educational Institutions.

Punishment

(a) By the Institute:

- Cancellation of admission, suspension, rustication or expulsion from the Institute/ Hostel.
- Filing FIR with the police.
- Collective punishment may be imposed where the persons involved are not identified.

(b) By the Law & Order Agencies:

Over and above the College-level action, there will be strong police and legal action. Ragging is a cognizable offence under the law of the land, and the Supreme Court has ruled that the punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent. According to relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), those found guilty of a ragging related offence can be punished with imprisonment or fine or both. The quantum of punishment varies with the gravity of crime. For example, Section 323 which deals with the cases of voluntarily causing hurt, can lead to imprisonment up to one year or fine or both; Section 306 which deals with abetment to suicide, specifies the punishment as imprisonment up to ten years with or without fine. Some other sections of IPC, in this context include Section 341 (wrongful restraint), Section 506 (Criminal intimidation), Section 302 (Murder), Section 307 (attempt to murder), etc.

Accordingly, Anti-Ragging Committee is formed / established at the college level which consists of the following members.
